Michelle Deese Bain Recognized as a 2025 40 Over 40 Honoree by The Association of Junior Leagues International

Anniston, AL – April 7, 2025 – Michelle Deese Bain is honored to be named one of the distinguished recipients of The Association of Junior Leagues International's (AJLI) inaugural 40 Over 40 Award. This recognition celebrates outstanding Junior League Members who have demonstrated exceptional leadership, impact, and service in their careers and communities.

Selected from among 297 Junior Leagues across six countries, Michelle was recognized for her outstanding contributions to our community and League. As a dedicated member of the Junior League of Anniston-Calhoun, Michelle has been committed to empowering others, driving positive change, and creating a lasting impact in Anniston-Calhoun.

"I am incredibly grateful for this recognition and for the opportunity to serve alongside so many inspiring women," said Deese Bain. "Through my work with the Junior League, I have had the privilege of making so many wonderful connections and friendships while serving our area, and I look forward to continuing to make a difference in my community."

The 2025 40 Over 40 honorees will be celebrated during the AJLI Annual Conference in Orlando, Florida, on Thursday, May 29, 2025.
